The amount of the fees, conditions for payment are defined by the rule established under the legislation. Periodically the amount of the fee shall be revised considering the respective international standards, changes of national currency rate and inflation.

TRADEMARK REGISTRATION ABROAD

ART. 23

The holder of the trademark registered in Georgia has the right under the observation of the prescribed rule, to present a trademark for registration in another country, or conduct its international registration.

CHAPTER III

USE OF TRADEMARK AND TRANSFER OF RIGHTS

CONFERRED BY REGISTRATION

USE OF TRADEMARK

ART. 24

1. Under the use of a trademark is considered: its affixing on the goods for which it has been registered, on its packaging, on the exhibit displayed at exhibition and fairs, signs, official forms, labels, advertisements, published works, also other use of trademark by the holder of a trademark, licensee or third party on basis of assignment of the right by the holder of the mark. Under the use of a trademark is also considered the use of a slightly different sign instead of the registered trademark.

TRANSFER OF RIGHTS CONFERRED BY TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

ART. 25

1. The rights conferred by the trademark registration can be transferred to other legal entity and natural person on the basis of the rule established under the legislation of Georgia.

2. The trademark can be transferred to another party with, or without an enterprise.

3. Transfer may be applied to the full list of goods or to its portion.

4. Transfer of the enterprise implies the trademark transfer as well, unless the contrary is provided by the transfer contract.
5. The contract on the trademark transfer shall be concluded in a written form. Unobservance of a written form shall result in annulment of the Contract.
6. If on basis of transfer documents Sakpatenti shall judge, that a trademark transfer can mislead a Consumer as to the features, quality, or geographical origin of those goods for which it is registered, Sakpatenti shall not record a note about the transfer in the register until it gets consent from assignee on withdrawing the goods leading into confusion from the list.
7. At transfer of the trademark the relevant amendments shall be recorded in the register and published after payment of the prescribed fee.
8. The new holder of trademark cannot apply the rights conferred by the registration against the third party, until the amendments regarding the trademark transfer shall be recorded in the Register.

LICENSE CONTRACT

ART. 26

1. The right to the use of a trademark can be conferred by its holder (licenser) to another person (licensee) on the basis of a license contract. The license contract can be concluded with respect to a full list of goods or to its portion.
2. The license is exclusive or simple.
3. If the license character is not defined by the contract, the license shall be considered as simple.

In this case the licenser can use the trademark himself or conclude another license contract.

4. The exclusive license prohibits the licenser to conclude other license Contracts and use the trademark, if it is not provided otherwise by the contract. The rights conferred by the exclusive license shall be in force during the validity term of trademark registration, unless provided otherwise by the contract.
5. The licensee is prohibited to transfer the rights conferred by the license Contract or to issue a sublicense, even in the case if it is not provisioned directly by the Contract.
6. In the case of infringement of license contract the trademark holder has the right to apply his exclusive rights pursuant to this Law in regard to the licensee, if the infringement relates to contract term, the form of trademark use, the list of goods for which the license was issued, territory, where the trademark can be used, the quality of goods or rendered service.
7. The license contract on the trademark is registered at Sakpatenti and the respective information is published in the Bulletin after paying of the prescribed fee.
8. In the case of infringement of the rights on trademark the licensee brings an action only by Consent of trademark holder.
9. The licensee shall, for the purpose of compensation of damages suffered by him, be entitled to participate in the Court proceedings against the infringement of the rights on trademark.
10. The transfer of the rights on trademark or license shall not affect the license granted earlier to the third parties.

CHAPTER IV

- a) within a continuous period of five years the trademark has not been put to use in connection with the goods in respect of which it is registered in Georgia. No person may claim the revocation of the trademark registration, where during the interval between expiry of five-year period and the filing of the cancellation request the use of the trademark has been started or resumed;
- b) the trademark has become a generic term for the goods for which it was registered;
- c) where at taking the decision there exist the grounds for revocation considered under Article 5 of this Law.
- d) in consequence of the use of the trademark made of it by its holder or with his consent, the trademark is liable to mislead the public as to the nature, quality, features, value, or geographical origin.

3. Where the grounds for revocation of rights exist in respect of only part of the goods for which the trademark is registered, the registration shall be canceled in respect of those goods.

RECOGNITION OF REGISTRATION NULLITY

ART. 28

I. A trademark registration shall be recognized annulled by the Court at the request of third party, if it has been registered in breach of Article 4 of this Law.

2. Where the grounds for nullity exist in respect of only part of the goods for which the trademark is registered, the registration shall be canceled in respect of those goods.

RESULTS OF RECOGNITION OF THE TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

CANCELED OR ANNULLED

ART. 29

I. If the trademark registration is canceled in accordance with Article 27 of this Law, the rights conferred by the registration shall be considered terminated from the date of taking the decision on revocation.

2. If the trademark registration is considered annulled in accordance with Article 27 of this Law, the rights conferred by the registration shall be considered annulled from the day of arising of the rights on the trademark.

3. The compensation of the damages is regulated by the Civil Code of Georgia.

CHAPTER V

COLLECTIVE MARK

RIGHTS ON COLLECTIVE MARK

ART. 30

1. A collective mark is a sign or combination of signs, which within the meaning of the Article 3 of this Law may be protected as a trademark and is capable of distinguishing the goods of the members of the collective mark holder association from those other undertakings regarding the geographical origin, common qualitative features or other features.

2. The holder and the applicant of collective mark can be only an association or a legal entity governed by public law.

3. It is prohibited to transfer the collective mark, and grant a license for this mark to the party, which is not the member of the association.

4. All rules of this Law are applicable to the collective mark, if not provided otherwise by this Chapter of the Law.

USE OF INDICATION OF GEOGRAPHICAL ORIGIN AS COLLECTIVE MARKS

ART. 31

1. In addition to the restrictions considered under the subparagraph "b" of the paragraph 1 of the Article 4 this Law it is admissible, as an exception, to register as a collective mark, such a sign which designates the place of geographical origin of the goods (place, district, region, name of the country or other indications designating the geographical origin of the goods).

2. The indication of geographical origin is not used as a collective mark for the goods, which did not originate from the respective geographical place, district, region, country, if such an indication leads to the confusion as to the origin of the goods.

3. If the indication of geographical origin includes the special features and quality of the goods, such indication shall be used as a collective mark only for the goods having respective features and quality.

4. The paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article shall apply to the name, indication and sign, which are similar to the indication of geographical origin.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE USE OF COLLECTIVE MARK

ART. 32

1. The application for a collective mark shall comply with the requirements of the Article 9 and must be completed by the regulations governing the use of collective mark.

2. The regulations governing the use of collective mark shall contain:

a) the name and address of the association;

b) the names of the members of the association and the legal address;

c) the purpose of the association;

d) the conditions for the use of a collective mark and control over its use;

e) the rights and obligations of the member parties of the association in the event of infringement of the rights to the collective mark;
